

Image credit: Kate Foster with Forestry Commission

Working the Tweed Project Room

Working the Tweed artists have been getting to know the Tweed River Catchment through a combination of reflecting on personal experience, drawing on specialist knowledge and creativity. The Project Room brings a creative process to different aspects of the Tweed rivers through drawing, sound recording, film and textiles.

Harestanes Countryside Visitor Centre near Ancrum, TD8 6UQ

October 9th until October 31st.

Open Daily 10am – 5pm

Free

www.workingthetweed.co.uk

a Tabula Rasa collaboration for the Year of Natural Scotland 2013 with artists Kate Foster, Jules Horne, Claire Pençak, James Wyness in partnership with Tweed Forum and Southern Upland Partnership

